

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 26, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, June 26, 1882.
For the Middle Atlantic States, slightly cooler southwest to northwest winds, fair weather preceded in the southern portions by light rains, stationary or higher barometer.

A LINDEN MAN ROBBED IN THIS CITY.
—Mr. Marcellus Berryman came here Saturday last from Linden, Warren county, Va., for the purpose of making some purchases, bringing with him $50 in greenbacks and some silver money. Before making his purchases he took several drinks and made a visit to the wharf, where he fell in with the "wharf rats" who are ever on the watch for the innocent stranger. He took some more whiskey, and became very much intoxicated. On coming to his senses Saturday night he found that he had been robbed of every cent he possessed. There are in this city a number of criminals who have not yet been brought to justice. Some of them deserve the halloo. A man named Griffin, from Philadelphia, was a short time ago drugged, it is believed, and robbed of $800 on the wharf. Nims, a disabled soldier, came here from Washington a few years ago, with his pension money, fell in with a crowd, and the next day his body was found floating in the river. The parties guilty of these crimes—robbery and murder—are still at large, patiently waiting and waiting for more victims. There are only a few of such vicious characters in this city, but they do their work well. It seems that a vigorous effort ought to result in bringing the criminals to justice.

POTOMAC IMPROVEMENT COMPANY.—A meeting of the trustees of this company took place on Saturday at Glymont, when arrangements were entered into for immediately putting under cultivation fifty acres of the land and erecting a $1,200 hotel or summer boarding house. Sites were selected for cottage residences, applications having been already made for the same, and the putting up of forty bathing houses was decided to be at once proceeded with. The committee went pretty well over the grounds, carefully inspecting all the surroundings with a view to permanent improvements, and decided to name the wharf known as Pye's wharf, Upper Glymont, while that now in use will be called Lower Glymont. The "Alhambra," which upon the grounds, will be erected on the bluff, between the two wharves, and the Chinese building in close proximity, so that from the river the two combined will have quite an imposing effect, and will doubtless prove a source of attraction to residents and visitors. It may be interesting to know there is already at Glymont a church and school house, both in active operation.

A SUNDAY EXCURSION STOPPED.—Rev. J. W. Webb, of the Shiloh (colored) Baptist Church chartered the steamer Harry Loder last week for an excursion to Marshall Hall yesterday, where a church was to be dedicated. Rev. Webb and a large number of excursionists, with bundles and baskets, assembled at the wharf yesterday morning. No doubt the excursionists would have had a pleasant time, had they been allowed to make the trip. Deputy Collector L. L. Johnson and Inspector Geo. W. Hawthurst, who were at the wharf, would not allow more than fifteen of the excursionists to go aboard of the Loder, that being all the passengers the steamer is allowed to carry by law. The number allowed being too small to pay expenses the party decided not to go on the Harry Loder but to try and get another steamer. Rev. Webb failing to make arrangements with the steamer Mary Washington, the enterprise had to be abandoned, and the excursionists, much disappointed, returned to their respective homes.

YESTERDAY—Religious Items.—The heat yesterday was intense, and the congregations at the several churches were small. In Christ Church Rev. Augustine J. Smith, who was ordained as deacon at the Theological Seminary Friday last, preached an excellent sermon in the morning, and Rev. Mr. Suter, pastor, delivered a short lecture at the evening service. Rev. John Yates Downman, of Fredericksburg, another of the recently ordained students of the Theological Seminary, preached in the morning in St. Paul's Church. There were no services in this church in the afternoon. Rev. B. F. Wiloughby, of New York, preached in the First Presbyterian Church in the morning. There was a Sunday school concert in this church at night.

Rev. Mr. Hadley led the meeting in the hall of the Reform Club yesterday afternoon. Several of the ministers are making arrangements to leave for the country and sea side.

PERSONAL.—The Goldsboro', N. C., Messenger says:

"While entertaining regrets at losing a clever gentleman from our midst, we are nevertheless glad to learn from the Alexandria Gazette, that Mr. Hector MacLean, the courteous Superintendent of Construction of the Midland Railway, has been elected Superintendent of the Washington and Western Railway, recently purchased by Mr. W. J. Best. We congratulate the company on its excellent selection. Mr. MacLean is a gentleman of experience in railway matters, possesses fine managing abilities, and will doubtless fill the position to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. His many friends here will learn with pleasure that Mr. MacLean will, for a while at least, continue to look after the construction of the Midland, and spend much of his time here at Goldsboro. We bespeak for him a cordial welcome among our Virginia friends."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church held another of its interesting quarterly concerts, in that Church, last night. The pulpit was adorned with profusion of beautiful flowers, arranged with splendid taste. Mr. D. K. Stansbury, Superintendent of the school, conducted the exercises, and Mr. H. W. Beadle led the singing. Rev. B. F. Wiloughby delivered a short, interesting address on the subject of the evening, "Flowers," and the scholars recited Scripture verses on the same subject. There were solos during the evening by Miss Annie Agnew and Rev. Mr. Wiloughby. Misses Marie Agnew and Julia English, two little girls, sang very sweetly, "Shall we gather at the river." Notwithstanding the warm weather, a good congregation was present.

POLICE NEWS.—The following arrests were made by the police during Saturday night: James Davis and Millard Tier, for fighting; John Burrage, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct; Thomas Hilary, for cutting the arm of a man named Chas. Foley; Mary Eliza Johnson, colored, for an assault on Isabella Plaine, also colored. This morning Davis and Tier did not appear at the Mayor's office, and forfeited collateral of $5 each. John Burrage was released with a reprimand. Tho. Hilary was also released, as it appeared the cutting was accidental. The Johnson woman was locked up for the non-payment of a fine of $5.

THE ALEXANDRIA CANAL CASE.—The taking of testimony in the case of the United States against the Alexandria Canal Company was resumed before Commissioner Fowler to-day, when Auditor F. L. Brockett and L. E. Uhler, secretary of the Canal Company, who were put on the stand last week by the United States, were cross examined by counsel for the city—Corporation Attorney K. Kemper, Judge Stuart and John M. Johnson, esq. The testimony to-day was in relation to the sale by commissioners Robert Brockett and Francis L. Smith for the city of 2,720 shares of stock of the Canal Company to the State, for which the city received $272,000 and applied the same to the reduction of its debt. Gov. Wells was present on the part of the United States. Mr. Rafael A. Bayley, of the United States Treasury Department, was also present.

ACCIDENT TO THE LADY OF THE LAKE.
The Lady of the Lake, on her return trip from Norfolk on Saturday night, while backing off from the wharf at Cornstalk Landing, about 100 miles from here, struck her rudder on a rock, breaking the gearing of the steering apparatus. Some delay ensued, during which connections were made with ropes. She again started out, but had hardly gotten fairly under way when she was struck by a heavy gale and was thrown upon a sand bar. The tide was low, and she was run in to the sand about two feet. Although the officers and crew made efforts to get her off, it was impossible to move her until after 7 o'clock yesterday morning, when the tide raised her. The Lake did not reach this city until after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The steamer arrived at Messrs. Agnew & Co.'s ship yard this morning for repairs.

INSTALLATION OF MASONIC OFFICERS.—The newly elected and appointed officers of Alexandria Washington Lodge, No. 22, A. F. & A. M., were installed Saturday night last, as follows: Worshipful Master, Charles E. Stuart; Senior Warden, F. E. Corbett; Junior Warden, A. W. Armstrong; Treasurer, John A. Field; Secretary, James S. Douglas; Senior Deacon, Harry Smoot; Junior Deacon, Wm. H. Zimmerman; Stewards, Leonard Marbury and J. E. Gentry; Tyler, John Craven. The arrangements for the centennial celebration of the lodge, to be held some time this year, have not yet been commenced.

RIVER TRADE.—Inspector G. W. Hawthurst reports the following arrivals at the river front, Str. Sue, Georgetown, Baltimore, merchandise to J. Broders & Co.; str. Louisa, Shropshire, Philadelphia, merchandise, to F. A. Reed & Co.; stup. E. Knight, Rochester, New York, merchandise, to F. A. Reed & Co.; schr. Mahoe, from Thomas Kendle, Kennebec, Me., to F. A. Reed & Co.; schr. James E. Stansbury, White, Havre de Grace, Md., to T. J. McHaffey & Co.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—Supt. Carver has been engaged all day examining the Washington School, but will not probably conclude the examination until Friday. To-morrow Lee School will be examined, on Wednesday Snowden, on Thursday Hollowell.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The July interest on the Corporation debt will be paid on Monday next.

The Alexandria Reform Club will give an excursion to Carlin's Springs on the 4th of July.

Thirty ear loads of stock passed through here Saturday night, over the Virginia Midland Railway, for Baltimore.

Several officers of the Georgia and Pacific Railroad Company, passed through here today in the car of the Superintendent of that road for the South, over the V. M. Railway.

The funeral of the late James Harris took place from the Alexandria Infirmary Saturday evening last, and was largely attended by friends of the deceased.

Nearly all the river steamers, including the John W. Thompson, which is running to lower Cedar Point, carried down the Potomac large excursion parties yesterday.

Wm. Curtis, who was struck on the head by an over head bridge, on the V. M. Railway, and thought to be seriously injured, is recovering at his home in West End.

Mr. Brookes, the Superintendent of the Potomac Manufacturing Company in this city, is in Boston, supervising the erection of vapor fuel furnaces in that city.

The schooner Chief was sold a few days ago by Wm. H. Hamilton to Wm. A. Bagley, and by Mr. Bagley to Henry Beach, who will rebuild her for the oyster trade.

The following were the prices in the Danville city market on Saturday: Beef 10 1/2c per lb; mutton 12c per lb; pork 15c per lb; chickens 15c each; butter 20 1/2c per lb; eggs 20c per dozen.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Duncan, and old and respected lady, residing near the Alms House, who died from paralysis Saturday night last, took place this afternoon and was largely attended.

The Southern Telegraph Company will shortly open an office in this city. Geo. D. Hopkins, son of Mr. Joseph Hopkins, a courteous and accommodating young gentleman, has been tendered the position of operator in charge.

A young man from Manassas, a stone mason working on the Virginia Midland Railway, near Lynchburg, under Mr. Breen, of this city, was struck by the North bound train over that road Saturday night last and badly, if not seriously, injured.

The three year old child of Mr. James Brannon died Saturday night last from a tumor in the stomach. The case being a remarkable one, Dr. Smith, the attending physician, assisted by other physicians of the city, made a post mortem examination.

An old woman named Bennett, living in a frame shanty near Porter's brewery, got drunk yesterday, and kicked over the stove, setting fire both to her clothing and the house. The flames were extinguished, by the neighbors with buckets, before much damage was caused.

The cars damaged by the accident at Fall Creek, on the V. M. Railway, last week, were brought to this city Saturday night. Engineer Butler, who was injured in the accident is still at Fall Creek. He is doing well and will be brought to his home here this week.

The weather yesterday was the hottest of the season, several thermometers on King street registering 96 degrees. Thermometers that registered 88 and 90 on Saturday registered 90 and 92 yesterday. The heat was oppressive, and an old colored man was prostrated near the canal. To-day, by reason of a good breeze, it has been more pleasant, although the thermometer has registered 92.
